THE SYDNEY E. ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP

The earnings generated from this fund are to be used to provide scholarships to graduate students in the Division of Technology for Education and Training in the School of Education.

Criteria:
1. Recipients must be fully admitted in either the Masters or Educational Specialist Degree Program with a GPA of 3.0 or higher.
2. Recipients must be preparing themselves as technology leaders in school or business.
3. Application is required and must include two references and resume.
4. Recipients may only receive one award from this fund during their USD college career.