

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA/LERN

MASTER OF ARTS (M.A.) IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

ADULT AND HIGHER EDUCATION

The Learning Resources Network (LERN) and The University of South Dakota are pleased to offer a Master of Arts in Educational Administration, with an emphasis in Adult and Higher Education. This degree is awarded by the University of South Dakota.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master of Arts in Educational Administration, Adult and Higher Education specialization, is a distinctive master's degree that combines the academic, theoretical and research findings of adult and continuing education with the practical application of the responsibilities and duties of adult and continuing education administrators.

This unique program has been designed at the request of adult and continuing education administrators interested in receiving graduate credit by combining the practical, professional education that LERN offers with essential academic education from the University of South Dakota, a highly respected higher education institution.

The combination of USD curriculum and LERN institutes and courses allows working professionals to gain extensive knowledge in the area of adult and higher education, as well as to obtain practical tools that are applicable and beneficial to their organization.

CURRICULUM

The University of South Dakota is fully accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association (<http://www.ncahlc.org>), and by the accrediting agency for education schools and colleges, NCATE - National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education. (www.ncate.org).

The master's degree in Educational Administration with an emphasis in Adult and Higher Education consists of 33 graduate credit hours. The convenience and flexibility of this program allows participants to gain up to 15 credit hours of practical knowledge through the LERN professional development institutes and online courses. The curriculum and faculty for select LERN institutes and courses are approved for USD credit in advance. As a result, university credit from the LERN experiences transfers seamlessly toward the master's degree. The remaining courses are completed online through the University of South Dakota. LERN participants residing anywhere in the world have access to this unique program.
