History

University Relations is the University of South Dakota public relations and promotions office, under the direction of the Vice President for University Relations. University Relations governs the USD departments of Media Relations and Communications Services, governmental relations, alumni services, intercollegiate athletics, and recreational sports. University Relations is also responsible for university policy and procedure, strategic planning, university press releases, and publishing the faculty/staff newsletter the Aviso.

Scope and Content Note

The University Relations Collection is comprised of one series of Photographs dating from 1990 –1996. The majority of the photographs were taken for use in the Aviso.

Photographs of activities include action photographs of sporting events such as basketball, Football and weightlifting. There are images of various performances in the theatre and music departments. The miscellaneous activities folder includes people in lectures, campus entertainment promotional pictures, teachers working one-on-one with students and a few commencement images. The Art Work folder holds photographs of various student works. The awards folder contains images of faculty and students receiving awards, scholarships and service recognition in numerous fields. Miscellaneous Groups provides images of student and faculty group photos, only some of which are identified. The Oscar Howe Art Institute shows four photographs of the participants, including a photo of Terry Redlightning working on an art piece. Many of the photographs in the Portraits folder are for the Career Service Employee of the Month, but only some are identified.
