

To find a “learner Gap” answer one of the following

5 Questions

- What has changed in the practice of your specialty in the last year & merits an educational event?
- Have there been areas where quality indicators suggest focused education is important?
- Is there breaking research in your specialty that physicians will find interesting and medically relevant to the quality of care for their patients?
- Are there traditional core performance areas in your specialty that are worth reinforcing and updating?
- Have there been recent patient incidents concerning safety and efficacy that would merit an education event?