Section 5: Areas for Improvement and/or Stipulations

2024 Annual Accreditation Repo : Annual Accreditation Repo : Section 5: Areas for Improvement and/or Stipulations

Summarize EPP activities and the outcomes of those activities as they relate to correcting the areas cited in the last Accreditation Action/Decision Report. The EPP will continue to report its action and progress on addressing its AFI(s) and/or stipulations until the EPP's next CAEP Accreditation Site Review.

To write your summary, please click on the pencil icon next to each AFI/stipulation to edit the AFI/stipulation. Once there, please provide narrative in the "2024 Annual Accreditation Report Summary/Narrative and Supporting Documents" box at the bottom of the page.

If you do not have any AFIs or stipulations listed, please mark this section complete.

AFI/STIPULATION

AFI R2.3 Clinical Experiences

The EPP provided insufficient evidence that candidate's clinical experiences ensure that they demonstrate their developing effectiveness and positive impact on all students' learning and development. (Component 2.3)

Impact on student learning is foundational to candidates' coursework and field experiences. It is developmental in that candidates identify how teachers can measure impact on student learning, integrate it into lesson planning (instructors provide formative feedback) during methods courses, internship field placement and first semester of residency, and then summatively evaluated in the key assessment candidates complete during second semester residency in their Impact on Student Learning Project (ISLP). In addition to the ISLP, candidates are summatively assessed by their supervisor on their impact on student learning through the Student Learning Outcome (SLO). This is identical to the ISLP. Candidates provide the EPP this data and faculty review the lesson planning, ISLP and SLO data on an annual basis.

Section 6. EPP's Continuous Improvement & Progress on (advanced level) Phase-in Plans and (initial-licensure level) Transition Plans

2024 Annual Accredited : Annual Accredited : Section 6. EPP's Continuous Improvement & Progress on (advanced level)

6.1. Summarize any data-driven EPP-wide or programmatic modifications, innovations, or changes planned, worked on, or completed in the last academic year.

This is an opportunity to share targeted continuous improvement efforts your EPP is proud of. Focus on one to two major efforts the EPP made and the relationship among data examined, changes, progress with any Transition Plans (initial-licensure level) and/or Phase-in Plans (advanced level), and studying the results of those changes.

For initial programs, faculty noted in the TTS 2023 survey, completer results indicated that the number one professional development need was in classroom management. The residency instructors are addressing this in EDFN 440 Classroom Management taught during 1st semester of residency. They had 5 targeted sessions to focus on aspects of management. The success criteria they will be looking for is to see 40% or less completers indicate behavior management as a concern. Professionalism is also an area that external stakeholders mentioned as an area for improvement for graduates. Faculty are addressing this in residency one (first semester of residency) in their ethics class. Specific areas of professionalism are related to: asking for references and recommendations, signing contracts and not breaking them and letting references know if you had a name change.

2025 update

Survey data (2022-2023 completers after one year of teaching in 2023-2024 school year) for TTS 2024 survey was collected and reported for faculty to review in September, 2024. Data indicate that completers are meeting the goal set for 2025 (40% or less would say they are struggling with classroom management/behavior). Data show that on average 94% of candidates believe they are able to manage behavior effectively. Helping students regulate their own behavior was the lowest with 74% agreeing and 26% disagreeing. This was the first cycle of data that was collected after making changes. Faculty will make no changes and monitor more data.

In professionalism, 94% of the completers' supervisors stated that completers met or exceeded professionalism expectations. This is the first cycle of data after faculty made changes to programing to emphasize ethics. Faculty will continue monitoring data. Faculty decided to make no changes at this time.

For advanced programs, Education Leadership faculty are looking at NELP standards alignment and School Psychology is monitoring leadership and delivery of services.

Education Leadership is focused on how candidates demonstrate mastery of NELP standards and updated crosswalks of courses and their content to ensure courses introduced both NELP and CAEP standards appropriately. For mastery, the faculty updated the internship e-portfolio content so that during the internship, candidates can self assess demonstration of mastery. Candidates use the e-portfolio rubric (approved by external stakeholders) to reflect at the beginning of the school year, at mid-point and at the end of internship. Their assessment of mastery will be in a district audit and capstone. Inter-rater reliability was completed on the assessment. Faculty also created a cohort model for K-12 principal program in Rapid City area to meet the needs of the western part of the state. External stakeholders in western South Dakota provided feedback that they are in high need of principals. Working with the Rapid City School District (RCSD), the division started a cohort in Rapid City (Starts summer 2024) and presently is recruiting area teacher leaders. RCSD will be partnering with Ed Leadership to teach some of the courses face to face in Rapid City. The courses will be cost reduced and will add additional content specific to the school district's initiatives.

Faculty reviewed Nuventive data for 2023-2024 and found that less than 80% of candidates met expectations of the EDAD 750 paper in which they describe their beliefs regarding their relationship with the members of the school board. Many lacked specifics of how a superintendent's actions connect to school board/superintendent relations. This will be emphasized in 2024-2025. In EDAD 760 Superintendent as Community Leaders also did not meet the 80% goal. Again, the program identified that candidates not meeting expectations were lacking specific behaviors/beliefs in being a community leader. This will be emphasized in 2024-2025. Similar results happened with the EDAD 786 Policy Briefs and EDAD 750 Superintendent Interview Paper.

School Psychology noted in 2023-2024 that all graduates met mastery goals but did note that professionalism was lower in both the Praxis and grade point in course related to Legal, Ethical, and Professional Practice. They are adopting a new edition of the ethics and law book. Also, the Praxis test scores identified the area of "Foundation of Service Delivery" was lower- all students passed. The new edition of the law and ethics in school psychology textbook is being adopted and a veteran professor will be teaching the foundations course the faculty believe will increase scores. School psychology graduation rates are increasing over time and we continue to work towards growing to a consistent 12 students per cohort. Our national examination scores continue to rise. The minimum to pass is 147 and in the most recent year, our students achieved an average of 165.5. Our students are consistently rated by their practicum and internship supervisors as meeting and exceeding skill and professional disposition expectations. We will continue to provide high quality training and experiences to build these skills in applied settings.
