Section 2. Review of Course

2.1. Was the course first offered as an experimental course?

- Yes (if yes, provide the course information below)
  No

2.2. Will this be a unique or common course?

If the request is for a unique course, verify that you have reviewed the common course catalog via Colleague and the system Course Inventory Report to determine if a comparable common course already exists. List the two closest course matches in the common course catalog and provide a brief narrative explaining why the proposed course differs from those listed. If a search of the common course catalog determines an existing common course exists, complete the Authority to Offer an Existing Course Form.

Unique Course

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
PSYC 368	Psychology of Sexuality	3
CJUS 431	Criminal Law	3

Provide explanation of differences between proposed course and existing system catalog courses below:

PSYC 368 addresses socio-sexual issues, including sexual aggression, erotica and pornography but it does not capture either the concept of human trafficking generally or the historical, political or criminal justice implications of trafficking.

CJUS 431, criminal law provides an overview of historical and system responses to crime and sources of social sanction but does not address the particular issue of human trafficking and it is focused on domestic criminal law and its consequences, whereas the proposed course takes an international view of trafficking systems.
