Section 2. Review of Course

2.1. Will this be a unique or common course (place an "X" in the appropriate box)?

Unique Course

If the request is for a unique course, institutions must review the common course catalog in the system course database to determine if a comparable common course already exists. List the two closest course matches in the common course catalog and provide a brief narrative explaining why the proposed course differs from those listed. If a search of the common course catalog determines an existing common course exists, complete the Authority to Offer an Existing Course Form. Courses requested without an attempt to find comparable courses will not be reviewed.

| Prefix & No. | Course Title | Credits |
|--------------|--|---------|
| IMC 700 | Interpersonal and Communication Skills I | 2 |

Provide explanation of differences between proposed course and existing system catalog courses below:

|---|
| The course above (IMC 700) is the first course in the evaluation of competency in interpersonal and communication skills within the practice of medicine. The new course (IMC 701) provides a capstone experience for successful completion of the training experience. Content is sequential, progressive, and cumulative for the two courses. |
