The above test are required for South Dakota teacher certification. If you anticipate becoming certified in a different state, check that state's testing requirements. Scores vary across the states, so it is very important to keep current, relying on state websites for specific state scores, as well as changes in testing requirements. They can be found at:

<http://www.ets.org/praxis> website or the individual State Department of Education website.

Below are direct links to area state websites:

Minnesota Certification Requirements: <http://education.state.mn.us/MDE/lic/lic/>

Nebraska Certification Requirements: <http://www.education.ne.gov>

Some endorsements may be added to your South Dakota teaching certificate with the appropriate praxis exam and no coursework. Those endorsements may be found on the South Dakota Department of Education website – <http://www.doe.sd.gov/oatq/praxis.aspx>

PLEASE NOTE: Praxis exams may be taken at any ETS testing site. However, when testing at sites outside of South Dakota, you may be at risk of that state not being updated on any changes of praxis testing requirements for South Dakota certification. Please refer to the South Dakota Department of Education accepted praxis exams, prior to registering for the exams(s) - <http://www.doe.sd.gov/oatq/praxis.aspx>

Feel free to contact the School of Education, Center for Student & Professional Services Office for registration assistance, Delzell Education Building, Room 114 or telephone 605-677-5698 and ask for Dr. Sherrie Bosse.
