Institute Policies:

- The Oscar Howe Summer Art Institute will provide free room and board plus basic art supplies while the student is at the University of South Dakota. Unless special arrangements are made with the Institute Director, the student or student's family is responsible for transportation to and from Vermillion.
- Students will bring towels, sheets and pillow cases.
- Students must be in the dorm by 10 p.m. Men and women must stay on their respective floors.
- Students are not allowed out of the dorm after hours.
- Smoking, alcohol, or drugs are not allowed on the campus. If a student has prescription medications, arrangements must be made with the Institute Director.
- Students must attend and participate in all Institute functions and be on time for all classes.
- Failure to obey Institute rules will result in the student being sent home.
- The University of South Dakota is not responsible for accidents, personal injury, or theft.

I hereby give permission for (print student name) _____ to participate fully in the Oscar Howe Summer Art Institute. I have read the Institute guidelines and understand that the University of South Dakota is not responsible for accidents, injury, or illness encountered by students attending the camp.
