

Project ECHO: University of South Dakota Opioid ECHO

	Date	Presenter	Session Topic
Session 1	Thursday January 16 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	What is Pain (The challenge of pain)
Session 2	Thursday January 30 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	What is Pain II (Pain neuroscience mechanisms)
Session 3	Thursday February 13 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	How is Pain Recognized (Psychosocial assessment of pain)
Session 4	Thursday February 27 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	How is Pain Recognized II (Measurement tools)
Session 5	Thursday March 26 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	How is Pain Recognized III (Physical examination of someone in pain)
Session 6	Thursday April 9 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	How is Pain Relieved (treatments for pain conditions)
Session 7	Thursday April 23 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kory Zimney, PT, DPT Associate Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, USD School of Health Sciences	Clinical Conditions and Pain Subgroups
Session 8	Thursday May 7 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kelly Bass, DSW, LCSW-PIP, ACS, MSW Program Director, Department of Social Work, USD School of Health Sciences	The Social Work Model of Care
Session 9	Thursday May 21 12:00-1:00pm CT	Dr. Kelly Bass, DSW, LCSW-PIP, ACS, MSW Program Director, Department of Social Work, USD School of Health Sciences	The Social Work Model of Care