

Fire Regulation Exemption Request

As a student at the University of South Dakota, I am aware of the Board of Regents fire regulations for the University of South Dakota. Based upon my spiritual beliefs and practices I am requesting an "Exemption" from these regulations.

- 1. I believe having access to and the opportunity for the utilization of my sacred medicines in personal prayer is essential to my traditional cultural/spiritual ways of life and for my wellbeing as a student at the university.
- 2. I am also aware that my roommate(s) or those closes to my living arrangement may have allergies to one or some of these medicines. Therefore, I will take the appropriate and necessary precautions in utilizing the medicines in the privacy of my own room.
- 3. I will also discuss the burn exemption with my roommate(s).
- 4. Once this form is complete and turned in to the University Housing Office

Fire Regulation Exemption Procedures

All applications are considered on a case by case basis and will utilize the following procedures for consideration:

1. Students can obtain an application at the University Housing Office.
2. Guidance can be sought from residence hall staff regarding completion of the application.
3. Once complete, the application can be submitted to the University Housing Office for processing.
4. During processing the University Housing Office will meet with the student requesting the exemption to make sur they understand the policy and precautions, then the University Housing Office will notify roommates (if applicable)
5. The University Housing Office will inform the student that the processing is complete via their USD Student Email. The University Housing Office will maintain the official record of the request.
6. The University Housing Office will also inform other applicable parties (Hall Directors, RAs, UPD, and Facilities Management).
