Process for Request for Residency Status & Residency Appeals

1. Student may request from the student's home institution an initial review of their residency classification decision. The home institution will do the review or send the student's request and documentation to the Enrollment Services Center, if that is the entity that made the initial determination.

Form needed: Application for Resident Status

Paperwork needed: As required on application

2. Primary agency responds to student with results of review.
3. Student may formally appeal the reviewed decision to their home institution.

Form needed: Appeal of Resident Status Determination (to the Home Institution)

Paperwork needed: All prior paperwork from Step 1, sent to committee by ESC or home institution office making the initial determination, and additional paperwork the student wishes to be considered, if any

4. Appeal is reviewed by the home institution's Residency Appeal Committee.
5. Committee reviews appeal and approves or denies. A letter is sent to the student explaining (a) the rationale for the decision, and (b) the appeal process.
6. The student may appeal the committee's decision to the Executive Director of the South Dakota Board of Regents. Upon receipt of an appeal, the Executive Director will request that the home institution forward copies of the student's appeal file, including all documentation used in making the committee's decision. The student's letter must include a clearly laid out explanation of why the student disagrees with the committee's decision.

Form needed: Appeal of Resident Status Determination (to the South Dakota Board of Regents)

Paperwork needed: All prior paperwork from Steps 1 and 3, sent to the Executive Director by the home institution Residency Appeal Committee, and additional paperwork the student wishes to be considered, if any

7. The Executive Director will inform the student and the home institution of his/her decision and the rationale for it. The Executive Director's determination is final.
