3 Undergraduate Credit Hours

Text

For this course we will be using digital course materials through Pearson’s REVEL platform. REVEL is a required component for this course. The REVEL course materials will be delivered through our campus’s First Day Access program and you will not need purchase any materials before class starts. You will have access to REVEL on the first day of class through D2L.

Our campus has partnered with the publisher to offer REVEL at a discounted price through the First Day Access program. Your student account will be billed for the discounted price of REVEL after the add/drop date. If you choose to not participate in this offer you will have the option to opt out of the program. If you opt out of the program you will not be eligible for the special discount and you will be responsible for purchasing REVEL on your own through the USD Bookstore.

Contacting the Instructor

Please e-mail me through D2L. My address is cegue@d2l.sdbor.edu I will have “Virtual Office Hours” on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. I understand that you will have questions at times other than these but in order to keep my professional life in order I must have a designated time to concentrate on answering your questions. I will not be checking into the D2L course and responding to you on a daily basis. That may seem difficult to you because the immediacy of the Internet makes all of us expect immediate turn-around times. All emails will be responded to within 48 hours Monday through Friday. You must sign your name to your emails so that I know with whom I am corresponding.

Getting Started

To get started in the course, you need to access the course in Desire2Learn (D2L). This can be done via the USD student portal, http://my.usd.edu or directly via
The course should be listed under “My Courses.” Note: You will be able to access the course one month before its official start date. The Course Homepage will coordinate your work in this course. You should immediately read the Syllabus, Course Description, and Course Introduction. When you finish reading these documents you will have a clear picture of how to operate in the course. You may want to print these documents and keep them handy.

You should familiarize yourself with the various tools that will be used during the course:

- Content: where course materials are located
- Assessments: where you will access your Grades and Quizzes (exams).
- Communications: where you access the weekly Discussions
- Resources: where you will find the Classlist (which you can use to contact me via D2L email)
- Course Mail: located at the very top right side of the course page in the gray bar. Course Mail will be used by me for all official course correspondence. When you have unread Course Mail, a red badge will appear on the email icon.

For information about the university’s technical, academic, and student support services, as well as how to take advantage of these services, please refer to the Online Student Handbook found at http://www.usd.edu/~media/files/usd-online/online-orientation-guide.ashx or in the course D2L site on the left side of the home page or under Content. If you are unsure as to whether or not your computer meets these requirements, or if you require any technical assistance, please contact the ITS Help Desk at 877.269.6837, 605.658.6000, or helpdesk@usd.edu

REVEL

4 Tips for Using REVEL to Succeed in This Course

1. Quizzes help you learn more as you read.
2. Track your performance in REVEL throughout the semester.
3. Highlighting important sections in the chapter will allow you to easily refer to them later in the semester.
4. You may want to try listening to the audio while you read.

Technical Standards

You will find information on technology requirements and support in the Online Student Handbook found at http://www.usd.edu/~media/files/usd-online/online-orientation-guide.ashx or in the course D2L site on the left side of the home page or under Content. If you are unsure as to whether or not your computer meets these requirements, or if you require any technical assistance, please contact the ITS Help Desk at 877.269.6837, 605.658.6000, or helpdesk@usd.edu

Please contact the Help Desk immediately so that your questions/problems can be resolved as soon as possible. It is your responsibility to resolve any issues with access to the course so that you can begin to participate in the course on the first day of the semester.

Course Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.
Diversity and Inclusive Excellence
The University of South Dakota strives to foster a globally inclusive learning environment where opportunities are provided for diversity to be recognized and respected. To learn more about USD’s diversity and inclusiveness initiatives, please visit the website for the Office of Diversity http://www.usd.edu/diversity-and-inclusiveness

Statement of Compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act
Any student who feels s/he may need academic accommodations or access accommodations based on the impact of a documented disability should contact and register with Disability Services during the first week of class or as soon as possible after the diagnosis of a disability. Disability Services is the official office to assist students through the process of disability verification and coordination of appropriate and reasonable accommodations. Students currently registered with Disability Services must obtain a new accommodation memo each semester.

Please note: if your home institution is not the University of South Dakota but one of the other South Dakota Board of Regents institutions (e.g., SDSU, SDSMT, BHSU, NSU, DSU), you should work with the disability services coordinator at your home institution.

Course Description
An investigation of the role of the visual arts in the historical and cultural development of world civilizations spanning the Renaissance to Modern Era.

Course Objectives
Objective One: The student will be able to use the tools and techniques of art history to find, formulate, and communicate information and ideas about art.

Implementation:
1. The student will be given a basic art vocabulary in the textbook and course lessons and is expected to use this vocabulary in tests and written assignments. Students will use library and online resources to supplement course and text materials when preparing their written assignments.

Objective Two: The student will be able to identify representative works of art from the Renaissance to the Modern Era according to historical period, approximate date, and artist (when appropriate). The student will be able to discuss such works of art with an appreciation for their context, purpose, and significance.

Implementation:
1. The textbook and course lessons are organized chronologically and emphasize stylistic analysis of representative works of art in slide form.
2. Each of the four required exams will have a slide identification portion that will be used to assess the student’s knowledge of the course material. The student is required to identify works of art by title, period, date, and, if appropriate, artist or location. Students will be provided with a list of slides to learn for each exam.

Objective Three: The student will have an appreciation of the continuity of art as human expression. The student will be able to apply art history to personal artistic goals.

Implementation:
1. The student is encouraged to present personal reactions and aesthetic judgments in written assignments
2. Course lessons, tests, and written assignments will place an emphasis upon the study of style, criticism, and the genesis of the creative idea.
Goals of the South Dakota System General Education Requirements
This class fulfills the following Goals of the South Dakota System General Education Requirements:

GOAL #4: Students will understand the diversity and complexity of the human experience through study of the arts and humanities

Student Learning Outcomes: As a result of taking courses meeting this goal, students will:

Online Discussion Question Guidelines

There are 12 online discussion questions for this course worth five points each for a total of 60 points. “Attendance” and presence are required for this class thus participation in the Online Discussions is mandatory for this class. Students are expected to log on to the discussion a minimum of three times per week and are expected to post a relevant and substantive contribution to the discussion at that time. These three postings must occur in three separate sessions and on three different days. The first post must be 7-8 sentences long, have a clear topic sentence, make a strong, but brief explanation of the student’s opinion, and be well-edited and clear, with no grammatical or spelling trouble. Because this is a university course, you are expected to carefully proofread your postings. This includes using full sentences, proper grammar and punctuation, and correct spelling. Simply saying “hello” or “I agree” is not considered a substantive contribution. You must support your position or begin a new topic or add somehow to the discussion when logging on. You will be awarded one point each for your first three logons. The other two points will be awarded based on the relevance and substance of your postings and are only available once you have completed the minimum of three postings. An effective posting will contain terms and concepts from the lessons that relate to the question being discussed. You cannot pass this class without participation in the online discussion.

Discussion question grades are posted after the first three discussions, at midterm, and at the end of the course. Please contact the instructor through private email at any time during the semester for an update on your discussion question points. The instructor will contact students individually if they are not meeting the posting requirements.

During Online Discussions you are expected to use good “netiquette” such as:
1. Check the discussion frequently and respond appropriately and on subject.
2. Focus on one subject per message and use pertinent subject titles.
3. Capitalize words only to highlight a point or for titles. Capitalizing otherwise is generally viewed as SHOUTING!
4. Be professional and careful with your online interaction.
5. Cite all quotes, references, and sources.
6. When posting a long message, it is generally considered courteous to warn readers at the beginning of the message that it is a lengthy post.
7. It is considered extremely rude to forward someone else’s messages without his or her permission.
8. It is fine to use humor, but use it carefully. The absence of face-to-face cues can cause humor to be misinterpreted as criticism or flaming (angry, antagonistic criticism). Feel free to use emoticons such as :) or ;) to let others know that you are being humorous.
9. If something angers you, do not respond immediately. Wait and carefully formulate your response so that it is respectful.
10. Never say anything you would not want to see on the front page of your local newspaper.

[The above “netiquette” guidelines were adapted from Arlene H. Rinaldi’s article, The Net User Guidelines and Netiquette, Florida Atlantic University, 1994, available from Netcom.]

Self-Test/Study Questions and Study Guides
Students will find Self-Test/Study Questions at the end of each online lesson and Study Guides for the exams under Content. Exams questions will have content similar to that found in these two resources so it is highly recommended that students use these assessments to check their understanding of course material. Students will find a topic heading under Discussions where they can post questions that they need help with and to check their answers to the questions. The instructor will answer all questions before the students take the exams.

Examination Guidelines
There are four required exams for this course. All four exams are closed book. Students are not permitted to use books, notes, or other materials for these exams. Study guides are provided for each exam. Forty of the terms from the study guide will be on the exam. The exams will be worth 100 points each and consist of five (5) slide identification questions (4 points each) and 40 multiple choice questions (2 points each). To take the exams, you will go to your proctor’s office during the time you have scheduled to take the exam and access D2L. Once you are at the course homepage you will click on Quizzes in the course menu. This will take you to the quiz/exam page. Click on the exam you need to take. Your proctor will give you the password, which will give you access to the exam. Each exam will be available online and must be taken during the scheduled week.

Slide Identification: A list of ten slides for identification is included with each study guide. Five of these slides will be on the exam for identification. The student must identify the work of art by title, period, date, and artist (if appropriate) or location (for architecture only). You must have all of the information for the slide correct to receive full points for that slide. No partial points will be awarded for the slide identification portion of the exam.

You will not be permitted to use books, notes, or other materials for these examinations.
Exams must be taken in the presence of an approved proctor.

Students living in Vermillion:
- Must test at the Vermillion Testing Center
- Do not need to turn in a proctor form
- Must make an appointment at least one business day in advance

Students testing at the Pierre, Rapid City, or Sioux Falls Testing Centers:
- Do not need to turn in a proctor form but must email us to let us know where they are testing

Students testing anywhere else
- Must turn in a proctor form at least one week before the exam opens

Students are encouraged to list multiple classes on one proctor form. If a student has multiple proctors, they must fill out one form for each proctor. Proctors can be a professional testing center, librarian, full time instructor at a university or college, high school principal or superintendent, full time high school teacher, high school guidance counselors, or full time member of the clergy. For students in the armed forces, education officers or an officer of a higher rank are also permissible. We cannot approve HR representatives or secretaries.

Students must contact the site nearest you to schedule your exams 24 hours in advance. Each site offers a professionally managed testing environment and each site (except the Capital University Center) offers extended hours.

- Pierre Area: Capital University Center 605-773-2160
- Rapid City Area: University Center 605-718-4193
- Sioux Falls Area: University Center 866-220-7085 or 605-367-5989
- Vermillion Area: Continuing Education at USD 800-233-7937 or 605-677-6240

The proctor form can be found on the left side of the course home page or under Content in D2L. Fill out this form and send it to Continuing Education at the address provided. Students are required to submit their proctor form by Monday, January 14, 2019. New proctor forms must be submitted each semester. If the proctor form is not returned by Monday, January 14, 2019 the student will not be able to take the required exams.

Course Policies

Grading Policy
Below you will find the point values and percentage of the final grade assigned to each component of the course. Discussion question grades are posted after the third week of class, at midterm, and at the end of the course. Please contact the instructor through private email at any time during the semester for an update on your discussion question points. The grade you see when you finish your exam will not be your actual grade for the exam. The instructor must go in after you complete the exam and grade the slide ID questions (20 points that are not included in your preliminary grade). Your grade will go up as a result of this review, it will never go down! You can view the adjusted grades by clicking on Grades on the course homepage no later than one week after the end of the exam period.

Note: You must pass the final exam to pass the course.

The Online Discussion Questions are worth 5 points each and are graded according to your ability to effectively contribute to the discussion. An effective posting will contain terms and concepts from the course that relate to the discussion. This is your opportunity to show me you understand and are able to apply the new information you are learning. The four exams will be graded on a point basis.

REVEL assignments are worth 1,596 points in REVEL. In D2L this is translated to 18% of your course grade.

Final grades will be computed using the following grading scale based on total points awarded for the 12 Online Discussion Questions, REVEL quizzes, and four exams:

Posting of Grades
All grades, including the course grade, will be posted on D2L and available to students to view by using the Grades link. You can view the adjusted grades on exams by clicking on Grades on the course homepage no later than one week after the end of the exam period. Discussion question grades are posted after the first three discussions, at midterm, and at the end of the course. The instructor will provide feedback to students on exams and discussion when grades are posted and at any other time during the course per student request.

Early Alert and Deficiency Grades
University policy requires instructors to submit Early Alert and Deficiency grades for students performing at the D level or below in a course. A student will receive an Early Alert report if the student has not completed the required postings and/or quizzes/exams by the Early Alert deadline. A student will receive a Deficiency at midterm if the student has not completed the required postings, quizzes/exams, and/or received a grade of D or less on the midterm exam.

Extra Credit
Extra credit is not offered in this course.

Make-up Policy
The exams and quizzes must be taken on the scheduled dates. Make-up exams and quizzes will be given, at the instructor’s discretion, only to those who make prior arrangements or whose circumstances warrant this allowance.

Instructor Initiated Drop
The Instructor Initiated Drop will be used if the student has not participated in the course discussion by Monday, January 14, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. and/or has not taken the required exams by midterm. A student may also be dropped by the instructor for plagiarism or cheating as per College of Fine Arts policy.

Incomplete
The grade Incomplete (I) is given at the discretion of the instructor and only if arrangements are made by the student with the instructor for completing the course before the last day of the semester. The student must have completed all course requirements except for the final examination to be considered for the grade of Incomplete. A student then must complete the course before the end of the next semester or the grade automatically changes to F.
Other Course Policies
Policies and procedures covering this course are detailed in the Online Student Handbook.

Course Evaluation
Students may be asked to evaluate the course using the institutional form as per the directives of the University.

Academic Integrity
The University of South Dakota considers plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty inimical to the objectives of higher education. The University supports the imposition of penalties on students who have been adjudicated to have engaged in academic dishonesty, as defined in the “Conduct” section of the University of South Dakota Student Handbook, and South Dakota Board of Regents policy 2-33 www.sdbor.edu/policy/Documents/2-33.pdf.

No credit can be given for a dishonest assignment. A student found to have engaged in any form of academic dishonesty may, at the discretion of the instructor, be:

a. Given a zero for that assignment.
b. Allowed to rewrite and resubmit the assignment for credit.
c. Assigned a reduced grade for the course.
d. Dropped from the course.
e. Failed in the course.

Freedom in Learning
Under Board of Regents and University policy student academic performance may be evaluated solely on an academic basis, not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards. Students should be free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study and to reserve judgment about matters of opinion, but they are responsible for learning the content of any course of study for which they are enrolled. Students who believe that an academic evaluation reflects prejudiced or capricious consideration of student opinions or conduct unrelated to academic standards should contact the dean of the college or school that offers the class to initiate a review of the evaluation.
